

CRESCERE

Ritchie Vineyard Sauvignon Blanc 2017

Tasting Note (updated 8/24/23):

Still so heady on the nose, with bits of sweet and sour pineapple, papaya, guava, pink grapefruit and notes of silt, white pepper, creme fraiche coming to the forefront. The palate is absolutely vibrant: big, rambunctious and friendly. Wax and lanolin join the equation, but underlined by the grapefruit, lime and kiwi. Mouth filling with plenty of acidity. In a tremendous place.

Vineyard:

Ritchie Vineyard, Russian River Valley

Reviews:

'One of the finest Sauvignons from California, a serious, concentrated effort that competes with any number of Bordeaux Blanc out there.'
